Austin Health acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of the land on which we operate, the Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung People of the Kulin Nation. We pay our respects to Elders past and present and extend that respect to all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Position purpose

The grade one Public Health Engagement Officer will contribute to the design, delivery and evaluation of place-based engagement and community capacity building initiatives that support effective public health interventions and outcomes within the NEPHU catchment. Working collaboratively with stakeholders and community, you will support and foster the development of the pathways, relationships and frameworks required to successfully deliver initiatives aligned with the NEPHU strategic plan across a population with significant cultural, language, health literacy and socioeconomic diversity.

About the North Eastern Public Health Unit (NEPHU)

The NEPHU is one of nine public health units in Victoria: three in metropolitan Melbourne and six covering regional Victoria. Together these units form a coordinated network, working in partnership with the Department of Health to deliver a comprehensive public health program for Victoria.

The NEPHU is hosted and supported by Austin Health with responsibility spanning approximately 1.81m people living in the northeast of metropolitan Melbourne. We work collaboratively to improve the health and wellbeing of the NEPHU population through health promotion, prevention and protection activity. We do this through evidence informed population and place-based responses to current and emerging health needs and emergencies. In this way we contribute to a vision of active connected and safe communities for all - with healthy places, healthy people and a healthier tomorrow.

The NEPHU is proud of its diverse multidisciplinary team who provide a service across extended hours seven days per week. Participation in a 7-day roster during periods of public health emergency may be required of all staff.

Position responsibilities

- Contribute to the development, implementation and evaluation of the NEPHU engagement strategy and frameworks, in collaboration with the Public Health Engagement Lead
- Contribute to the development, delivery and evaluation of engagement activities aligned to the strategic plans, ensuring activity is data-led and stakeholder-informed
- Participate in the design, facilitation, and delivery of targeted virtual, online and face to face engagement and capacity development activities and events with key community and stakeholder groups that deliver expected outcomes
- Contribute to the development, implementation and management the NEPHU stakeholder database, and any future systems implemented for this purpose
- Build strong, collaborative and mutually beneficial relationships with internal and external stakeholders including government, sector and community groups as well as senior NEPHU staff and relevant NEPHU program areas
- Contribute to community and stakeholder insights through relationships, knowledge sharing, community listening and other activities and data sources, to identify priority issues and inequities and formulate relevant responses
- Facilitate codesign and collaboration opportunities with stakeholders and community to maximise innovation and impact
- Contribute to the development and delivery of communications, both formal and informal, to drive awareness, build trust, deliver culturally appropriate information, and support social mobilisation to create change and improve health outcomes
- Contribute to the development of methods and materials that underpin engagement and capacity development activity
- Contribute to and embrace innovative processes and new ways of working that advance the effectiveness of the engagement team, wider branch, and/or whole of NEPHU
- Collaborate on the development of project and activity reports and evaluations, success story case studies and the collection, preparation and reporting of data for internal and external audiences
- Keep accurate and complete records of your work activities in accordance with legislative requirements and local (NEPHU and Austin Health) records, information security and privacy policies and requirements
- Respond as directed to emerging issues and emergencies under the direction of relevant staff and managers to ensure a timely and effective service in response to ad hoc requests
